Dear Sir,

I thank you for your letter in answer to my advertisement in "The Connoisseur" and offering me a copy of Marmin's Masonic medals at $ 10.

I have a copy of this, but I would like the one you have for a friend of mine.

In view of the exchange at present, the price is going to be between £2. and £3. instead of approximately £2.

If you can, therefore, help me in the matter of price a little, I would be glad.

At any rate, send it to me, if you will, by return and I will remit you. I am well known in the photographic trade and either Willoughby's or Herbert & Hughesons of New York know our standing quite well.

I hope to hear from you,

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir:

Responding to yours of September 28th, I have decided to meet your request by sending you Mr. Marvin's book in an unbound form at a cost of $6.00, instead of the price quoted you. This will enable you to have it bound to suit your taste and perhaps more economically than it would be possible here. Should you be able to place another copy at this rate, I am in a position to furnish a second one.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Responding to yours of September 28th, I was glad to have you write that you had a copy of Mr. Marvin's book, because when I came to look for it I found that I was mistaken in thinking that I had a duplicate for sale. Does your copy have the supplement? This was published in the American Journal between the years 1888 and 1910. I could send you an unbound copy for $3.00, if you do not have it. Awaiting further word from you, I beg to subscribe myself

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter and sorry to note there is not a copy of Marvin's Medals available, as I wanted this for a friend of mine who is anxious to get hold of one.

I would rather like to see the supplement you offer me at £3. Can you send it to me on approval?

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir:

Yours of October 21st is at hand.
I presume your quoting of the price for the Supplement to Marvin's Medals is a slip - you write £ 3, whereas the price is $3.00.
I am sending you a copy, under separate cover, which you will please feel free to return if you do not find it worth the amount asked.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Noe,

Thanks for your note and also for the supplement to Marvin's Medals.

I am sorry I made the stupid mistake of quoting £3 instead of $3. I am remitting the $3 to you and if it is possible to get hold of a copy of Marvin, together with the supplement, I shall be very grateful, as a friend of mine wants one rather badly. Please send along if you can find same.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

If you have any more of the supplements of Marvin, I think I could get rid of one or two for you at the same price, namely three dollars.

I suppose you have not come across an original copy of Marvin that I could have, as I should very much like to get same?

Yours faithfully,

Wallace Heaton
